

Hello,

I am concerned that the adoption of more liberal ownership rules by the FCC will diminish diversity in the airspace and will essentially allow the creation of an information cartel that will limit flow of information and cultural diversity. It is my opinion that no changes to current statute should be undertaken.

Sincerely,

Wallace Wells